

Firm demand for Suffolks in Dungannon

Brothers Gary and Robin McAdoo from Cookstown take the supreme champion and reserve champion places at the recent sale of pedigree Suffolks in Dungannon Farmers mart, Granville. Sam Coleman the judge, gave the supreme champion to a ram lamb owned by Gary McAdoo which was by Blackhall Dynamite out of a ewe by Knockadoo Topgun, this lamb was also placed 1st in the ram lamb class. Reserve champion went to Robin with a lamb by Pennan Performer also out of a ewe by Knockadoo Topgun, this lamb was placed 2nd in the ram lamb class. Third prize in this class also went to Robin with another lamb by Pennan Performer out of a ewe by Hallhill Powerline.

1st prize in the shearling class went to T Killock Bangor with a ram by Muireisk Obe out of a ewe by Muireisk Magnum. 2nd prize went to S & W Tait Omagh with a ram by Cairness Royal Court out of a ewe by Burnview Stylist, and 3rd prize went to J Steele Ballyclare with a ram by Laurelbank Sir John Out of a ewe by Convent Constructor.

Leading prices were – S & W Tait £580, R McAdoo £520, T J Killick £500, A Patton £460, W B Johnston £440, R McAdoo £400, T J Killick £400 & £380, W & R McMullan £360, F Bryson £360, A Patton £360, S & W Tait £360 & £340, W B Johnston £350, £320 & £300, W Cousins £290, J H Stewart £320, £280, £270, £260 × 3, B McMillan £280, W & R McMullan £270, F Bryson £260, G McAdoo £260, J Steele £260.

A N Irwin & Sons Eglisk Dungannon were main sponsors of the event.

Nigel Irwin A N Irwin & Sons, Gary McAdoo with the Supreme Champion and Sam Coleman the judge.

Gary McAdoo and the reserve champion with Nigel Irwin and Sam Coleman